

HOUSE BILL 790

By Smith

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 4, Chapter 5 and Title 23, Chapter 3, relative to representation of persons and entities in proceedings before courts and administrative agencies.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-306(a)(1), is amended by deleting the language “upon motion of one (1) of the parties or such party’s qualified representatives, may direct the parties or the attorneys for the parties, or both,” and substituting instead the language “upon motion of one (1) of the parties, a party’s qualified representative, or a party’s attorney, may direct the parties, the parties’ qualified representatives, or the parties’ attorneys, or the parties, representatives, and attorneys,”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
